Discover Your Purpose Facilitators:

Do you love to help people discover more about who they are? Do you have a love for training and teaching? If so, you would make a great Discover Your Purpose facilitator. This class is a 1.5-hour session helping people discover their Spiritual Gifts, Abilities & Passions in life. As the facilitator, you would lead people through the course content and provide a space for them to ask questions and engage with each other.

A requirement for this role is that you yourself have attended Discover Your Purpose and have familiarity with Spiritual Gifts. Discover Your Purpose is offered bi-monthly.

LifeGroups Event Coordinator:

Our LifeGroup Ministry is looking for an event coordinator! We host about 5-6 events per year for the LifeGroup Leaders and Ministry. As the Event Coordinator, you would oversee the management and organization of these events in partnership with our Discipleship Pastor. This would include booking venues & food, building a team for hospitality, and other event needs.

The time commitments happen throughout the year, but our major events take place in September, January/February & June

Discussion Question Writers:

Our LifeGroups are sermon-based LifeGroups, which means that each week groups meet to discuss what was taught during our Sunday Gathering. This means that every week we have a team of writers who come up with original questions for the LifeGroups to go through together. If you are someone who loves to process information and develop thought provoking conversation from it, then you would make a great "DQ" writer. Our sermon outlines are sent to the writers on Thursday afternoon and after getting a sneak peek at the upcoming sermon, they follow a template to develop discussion questions and prayer moments for the LifeGroups.

The commitment for this role is monthly. When it is your scheduled week to write questions, you will have from the Thursday afternoon to Saturday evening to complete the questions.
