

Activities Specialist

Leader Title: Activity Specialist
Scheduled: 7:00-9:00pm Fridays
Weekly Commitment: 3 hours (prep, execution & teardown)

Role Description

Are you enthusiastic, full of energy, and love to move around? Then the role of activity specialist is perfect for you! As an activity specialist you will be responsible for leading the kids in a large-scale group activity during BYN. Since we are divided into senior and junior high, there would be two large games being conducted each night. There is a file folder that can be resourced to select games from, but activity specialists are more than welcome to create their own!

Additional Responsibilities:

- Come already prepared to run an activity
- Be intentional about running a variety of activities from week-to-week, in an attempt to appeal to the diverse group of youth
- Reach out to persuade all of the youth to get involved in the activities

What Does a Win Look Like?

- You are running activities that are already created and creating new ones
- Both you and the youth are involved and are having fun
- Encouraging everyone, including the youth leaders, to get involved

Communications Team

Leader Title: Communications Team Member

Scheduled Shift: TBD with Communications Team

Weekly Commitment: 3 hours (prep & execution)

Role Description

The Communications Team is responsible for relaying all the cool and fun activities which take place at BYN to the rest of the church community through our social media and bulletins. This is perfect for anyone with a creative mind, that is familiar with the various social media platforms; particularly Instagram. This role also lends itself to individuals with an act for graphic design, as we may occasionally need templates, bulletins, or various merchandising designed for BYN.

The Communications Team works closely with the photography and videography team to help publish content.

Additional Responsibilities:

- Create an online social media presence with a regular posting schedule
- Provide timely updates based on upcoming events via Instagram and LinkTree
- Help update current forms and bulletins.

What Does a Win Look Like?

- Engage with the youth via social media platforms
- Parents feel well informed of events
- Posting creative and fun content

Group Facilitator

Leader Title:	Group Facilitator
Scheduled Shift:	7:00-9:00pm
Weekly Commitment:	2.5 hours (prep & execution)
Minimum Commitment:	Facilitate Twice a Month

Role Description

Do you have a passion for working with youth and desire to help them connect to the God of the Bible? As a Group Facilitator, your role would be to help facilitate discussions with youth (grade 6-8 or 9-12) on the Biblical teaching delivered during the BYN. Group sizes would range between 8-12 youth.

The purpose of the Group Facilitator is NOT to know all the answers but to ask the good questions that will help you and the youth engage in meaningful dialogue. This requires 30 minutes or so of prep in advance to review and familiarize with the lesson summary and discussion questions, and 45 minutes during BYN.

Additional Responsibilities:

- Arrive on a bridge youth night prepared to be present for the youth

What Does a Win Look Like?

- The youth are engaged, responding, and asking questions related to the lesson
- You feel comfortable using your personal experience with the Biblical content to help the youth make connections to the lesson
- You feel you have been given enough information to facilitate the Chatrooms

The Welcome

Leader Title: Registration Greeter
Scheduled Shift: 6:15-8:15pm Friday's
Weekly Commitment: 2 hours (set-up, execution & teardown)

Role Description

If you are in charge of registration, you are the gatekeepers of fun! We want the youth to feel welcome as they join us each week, and you do this by greeting them at the door with a smile and helping them get checked in at the start of BYN. This requires arriving at church at 6:15pm prior to the start of the night, setting up the registration desk, and using the online database to help youth 'check-in' once the night begins. Youth typically arrive between 6:50 pm and 7:45 pm which means by 8:00 pm you can begin to tear down the registration station.

Additional Responsibilities:

- Operate Planning Center to record the number of youth in the building.
- Maintain a list of any new youth who come out, so that, the list can be sent to Pastor Rod from him to do a follow up welcome
- Help new youth be recognized and properly connected with a youth leader.

What Does a Win Look Like?

- You are having fun connecting with youth and parents as they enter the church
- Each youth is welcomed with a smile and excited greeting
- Ensuring the arrival of new youth leads to them being connected to a youth leader
